Teenage actor

Journalist Elisa Franklin talked to young acting star Sonia Haddin.

Sonia Haddin is only fourteen but she has already made her first film! She explained to me how her interest in acting began, “I never volunteered to act when there was a school play. Mum and Dad took me to the theatre regularly, but I preferred the cinema. Then one weekend, my cousins visited. We spent a long time recording funny scenes together on our phones – it was great fun being in front of the camera and I wanted to find out more. Recently, I saw an article about an actor who did exactly the same thing at that age!”

Then Sonia began acting lessons at a drama school and performed at a local theatre. When I asked her about her first film, she said, “My drama teacher put up an advert. A film company was looking for actors for a film called ‘Magic!’. I knew the story well – it’s one of my favourite novels – so I applied. I was terrified to act in front of the director, but he loved my performance!” Sonia got a main role and was delighted when a friend also got a part. “It was funny because she played a character who’s quite like me,” Sonia said.

While Sonia was filming, she couldn’t go to school. She wanted to learn the same as her classmates, so she decided to have an online tutor to keep up with her schoolwork. “I thought having all my lessons on the Internet would be fun,” she explained. “But I missed my classmates. I didn’t always know when I had to film, so it was sometimes difficult to organise when I could do my online lessons. On film sets, there are often times when everyone’s waiting around, doing nothing. The other actors found that quite boring, but I didn’t because I used that time to do schoolwork. Now the film’s finished and I’m back at school, but I can’t wait to start working on a new project with a different director next month. It’ll be an amazing opportunity!”

Read the following text about social media influencers and then do the task below.

Influencers: The New Celebrities?

Almost half of the world's population uses social media platforms like Instagram, Facebook or TikTok, and many use these networks to follow influencers.

Influencers are people with an attractive skill or an idea that goes viral. They can impact the decisions of their followers and persuade them to buy things. Because influencers have this power, big companies like Nike, Starbucks, and Real Madrid are now asking them to advertise their products.

Do you want to become an influencer? Here are four tips on how to do it.

Choose your communication channel

Decide where you want to connect with your followers. You could use an online blog or any other platform. Remember to choose a popular option! Facebook is not the best choice if you want to attract teenagers. They prefer TikTok or Instagram, for example.

Post interesting content to attract your followers

Check that your posts are attractive. Use a photo or a comment to tell a story that will help you connect with your followers.

Make sure people can find your content easily

Share your posts on different social media sites, use hashtags (#) and attractive titles to make your content easy to find. Try to be original and different from other influencers.

Show interest in your followers

It's important to show your fans that you really care about them. So make sure you like and comment on their posts. Also, ask your followers questions about their lives.

Remember... to become a social media influencer, you need to be creative. Continue making original posts and more people will follow you. Good luck!
