TASK 2

Your school is organising a project to connect teenagers from all over the world in a blog called 'Our Global Village'. Every week, teenagers from different parts of the world share their lifestyles there. You want to join this global challenge to see how different or similar we all are!

Write the text of your post. Include information on all the following items:

- yourself and your family
- your daily routine at home and at school
- the activities you like and don't like doing in your free time
- what you and your family did last summer
- your plans for next weekend
